

LPH Foundation Privacy Notice

Thank you for visiting our website Privacy Notice. Leopardstown Park Hospital Foundation (“LPH Foundation”) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This Privacy Notice tells you about your privacy rights and sets out how we, as a Data Controller, collect, use, process and disclose your personal data relating to your interactions with us.

1. Information we may collect from you

Personal data means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data). We may collect and process any type of personal data you provide to us in the course of your interactions with us.

2. What information do we collect?

We will only use your personal data for the purposes and legal bases set out in the table below.

Data Collected	Purposes/activity	Legal basis for processing
First and last name, email address, contact number, payment card details	To facilitate the provision of donations to our charity.	The processing is necessary to perform a contract or enter into a contract with you.
First and last name, email address.	To contact you confirming receipt of the donation you have supported us with.	The processing is necessary to perform a contract.

3. Who do we share your information with?

We will not share your personal data except in the following circumstances:

Service Providers: Carefully selected companies that provide services for or on behalf of us, such as IT and website support. We may work with a bank or payment card service provider so that you can use our donation facilities. These providers are also committed to protecting your information.

Other Parties When Required by Law: Although highly unlikely, it may be necessary by law, legal process, or court order from governmental authorities to disclose your information. They may also seek your information from us for the purposes of law enforcement, national security, anti-terrorism, or other issues that are related to public security.

Other Parties with Your Consent or at Your Direction: In addition to the disclosures described in this Privacy Notice, we may share information about you with third parties when you separately consent to or request such sharing.

Our website may contain links to and from other websites. If you follow a link to any of those websites, please note that those websites have their own privacy policies and we do not accept any responsibility or liability for those policies. Please check those policies before you submit any personal data to those websites.

4. Security and where we store your personal data

We are committed to protecting the security of your personal data. We use a variety of security technologies and procedures to help protect your personal data from unauthorised access and use. As effective as modern security practices are, no physical or electronic security system is entirely secure. We cannot guarantee the complete security of our infrastructure, nor can we guarantee that information you supply will not be intercepted while being transmitted to us over the Internet.

5. Retention of your personal data

We will only store your personal data only for as long as necessary for the purpose(s) for which it was obtained. The criteria used to determine our retention periods include (i) the length of time we have an ongoing relationship and/or provide our services; (ii) whether there is a legal requirement to which we are subject; and (iii) whether the retention is advisable in light of our legal position (such as in regard to applicable statutes of limitations, litigation or regulatory investigations).

6. Your rights

You have several rights in relation to your personal data under applicable privacy and data protection law, which may be subject to certain limitations and restrictions:

- Right to be informed- - You have the right to information about processing of your personal details.
- Right of Access - You can request a copy of the personal data we hold about you. You may make Subject Access Requests (“SARs”) at any time to find out more about the personal data which LPH Foundation holds about you, what it is doing with that personal data, and why. Please see the Contacting Us section.
- Right to Rectification - You have the right to request that we correct any inaccuracies in the personal data we hold about you and complete any personal data where this is incomplete. -
- Right to Erasure ('Right to be Forgotten') - You have the right to request that your personal data be deleted in certain circumstances.
- Right to Restriction of Processing - You can ask that we restrict your personal data (i.e., keep but not use) in certain circumstances.

- Right to Data Portability - Where you have provided personal data to us, you have a right to receive such personal data back in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format, and to have that data transmitted to a third-party data controller without hindrance but in each case only where the processing is based on your consent or on the performance of a contract with you.
- Right to Object - You have the right to object to us processing your personal data.
- Right to lodge a complaint -You also have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, although we would encourage you to contact us first. Contact details for the Data Protection Commission can be found at <https://www.dataprotection.ie>
- Right to withdraw consent - where we process your data on the basis of consent, you have a right to withdraw your consent.
- Rights in relation to automated decision making - we do not use automated decision making.

7. International transfers

Your use of our services will not involve the transfer of your personal data outside of the EEA.
